The Story of Santa's Beard

There's a problem growing at the North Pole because each time children around the world share, play fair, do their best, and tell the truth, Santa's beard grows a little bit. Soon, because thousands of children are good every day, Santa's beard gets so long he can hardly walk or talk, and he can't make the toys!

But those clever little elves come up with a plan. In the end, all Santa must do is choose the best kids from the "Good List" to receive a snippet of his long beard—included in the book.

TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH

A love story for all ages.

This lyrical “love story” goes beyond all borders as it takes you on a journey of love from the moment it comes into your world, through the challenges it brings as you travel through wild storms, over steep mountains, across mighty oceans, and through the darkest jungles, ever pushing forward, fueled by love’s unlimited power. When children get bored, sick, upset, lost, or afraid, their burdens are greatly lightened by knowing someone will go to the ends of the earth for them. This is a story to share with the loved ones who have gone to the ends of the earth for you, the ones for whom you will travel the distance, and those of future generations who will continue the ever-spinning cycle of love.

A Tooth Fairy Named Mort

Setting the tradition for generations to come!

After hundreds of years of keeping the secrets, the Grand Fairy Council ruled that it was time to tell the children where the tooth fairy lives, why she needs their teeth, where she gets human money, and why she doesn't show up some nights.

This story, as it was told to Ms. Sharon by the Tooth Fairy herself, will give you a glimpse inside Fairyland, introduce you to the loveable tomboy tooth fairy, Mortina, and unveil the truth of how children hold the power to continue fairy magic forever.
