MEET OUR FOUNDERS

When our first daughter turned three, Matt and I realized we couldn't find clothes that fit her tractor-loving, chicken-chasing, tree-climbing spirit. Everything available either missed her personality or didn't let her move freely and get dirty in comfort. So, we decided to make her a few pieces ourselves – and the response was undeniable. It turned out that both girls & boys were looking for exactly what we were creating. That's how Barefoot Baby was born.

Today, Barefoot Baby is about so much more than original artwork (and our daughter!). We've grown into a full product line of super comfortable styles for everyone in the family. At the heart of it all, our mission is to bring nature and family back to childhood, one product at a time.

No matter how you find us- we hope you will join us as we LIVE LIFE BAREFOOT.

“Moo.” Cow F14

If you're reading this, thank you. Every time you place an order, hang our pieces on your racks, or tell a parent “you’re going to love these,” you’re doing something bigger than you may realize. You’re helping keep childhood comfy, adventurous, and full of fresh air. Barefoot Baby is built for kids who are happiest outside – the climbers, stompers, explorers, and end-of-day mud pies – with clothing that doesn’t ask them to slow down. Soft enough for sleep, tough enough for play, and comfortable enough for wild, wonderful “just kids” days.

By carrying our brand, your store serves as a place where families discover the pieces they’ll make memories in, and we’re so grateful for that. Please know we are always here for you – reach out anytime with questions, feedback, or ideas. We truly want to know you, to learn what your customers love, and to support you like a real partner. Thank you for believing in this mission and for helping families get back outside.

From our family to yours, Thank you. Sincerely,

Alyssa
